

I question the wisdom of allowing cell phones on flights period. They could be used by terrorists to remotely set off bombs in the hold, as they were used in Spain.